Ray Monahan Appointed as Southeastern Sales Representative for J.L. Becker Company

J.L. Becker, a Gasbarre Furnace Group Company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ray Monahan as its Southeast Sales Representative, including North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida and Virginia. Ray has extensive processing experience in surface engineering techniques, as well as conventional and vacuum heat treating processes.

For the past 16 years, Ray served as President of Ionic Technologies, Inc. in Greenville, South Carolina. In addition to the heat treating industry, Ray worked in the steel and metal industries as General Manager for distribution and processing of heat treatable materials.

In January 2015, Ray started his own business where he serves as a consultant and manufacturing representative - Heat Treating Equipment & Thermal Processing Solutions, Inc.

Ray holds a degree in Industrial Technology from Rhode Island College and is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He is a retired Lieutenant Colonel from the U.S. Army Reserves.

Located in Plymouth, MI, J. L. Becker has manufactured industrial heat treating equipment for over 40 years, providing excellence in design, construction and service. The company custom designs and manufactures heat-treating equipment for the specific needs of our customers.
